

taniav.com

info@taniav.com

0545816469

Tania Vinokur, multitalented and vibrantly unrivalled has been captivating audiences all over the globe with her inimitable fusion of musical, dance and percussive segments inspired by Oriental, Latin, Classical and Gypsy craft. For her upcoming album "IN TIME", Produced in Tel Aviv and mixed/mastered in the leading studio in Madrid, she channels her time spent studying music in the Iberian peninsula and delivers a seductive tribute to the cities and culture that left such a lasting impression on her performances and compositions. The subsequent sonic creations are enhanced during her live performances by a selective 5-piece band of talented players. Live shows fully emulate Tania's triple-threat approach to sharing her artistry with the world. Her stage presence is simultaneously theatrical and magnetic, transporting audiences to her custom realm of musical and movement-driven integration leaving them stunned.

Born in Moldova, Tania started her stage career at the age of 5 through intensive classical violin training. Her family soon immigrated to Israel where she fine-tuned her violin skills and further dancing inclinations through formal instruction. Having grown up in the cultural melting pot of Israel, Tania also explored the realm of percussion and rhythmic art which completed her own threefold artistic identity.

In recent years, Tania has performed globally on European, American, Thai and Cuban stages as well as at various festivals throughout the world. Most recently she has appeared on TEDx Jaffa during which she received an ovation for the most original performance at the event. This honor praised her distinct combination of dancing and violin playing which Tania states is "...the most natural thing for her to do."

Today, Tania Vinokur is nearing the completion of her successful 2018 "Gypsy" II Israeli tour, playing over 30 shows across the entire country. She is set to release her new album "IN TIME" and to bring her riveting performances to Europe and South America in early 2019.

Show dates :: <https://www.taniav.com/shows>

WWW.TANIAV.COM

